- Clipboards.

A student observed with any of these prohibited items during testing or breaks may be dismissed from the exam, the device may be confiscated, the student's score may be canceled, and no retest may be permitted.

Follow any specific health and safety protocols for the exam room that your school may have in place. AP policies allow you to bring hand sanitizer to the room, but it must be placed under the desk, not on the desk. You may use any other PPE (such as masks) following your school's current requirements.

Exam Components

Section 1: Multiple Choice

45 questions | 1hr | 45% of Exam Score

Excerpts from nonfiction texts are accompanied by several multiple-choice questions:

- 23–25 Reading questions: You'll be asked to read and analyze nonfiction texts.
- 20–22 Writing questions: You'll be asked to read like a writer and consider revisions to the text.

Section 2: Free Response

3 questions | 2hrs 15min | 55% of Exam Score

The 2 hour and 15 minute time limit for this section includes a 15-minute reading period.

In the free-response section, you'll respond to three questions with written answers. This section tests your skill in composition in three areas:

- Synthesis: After reading 6–7 texts about a topic (including visual and quantitative sources), you will compose an argument that combines and cites at least 3 of the sources to support your thesis.
- Rhetorical analysis: You will read a nonfiction text and analyze how the writer's language choices contribute to the intended meaning and purpose of the text.
- Argument: You will create an evidence-based argument that responds to a given topic.
